

Master Supply List Level II

For Even Numbered Years (2010, 2012, etc)

Introductory Activity Livestock Quality Assurance & Ethics

- Flip chart, white board or placards with terms
- Dry erase boards (EPR) for each participant

Ethics and Animal Science Projects

- Video/DVD – “A Question of Ethics”
- VCR/DVD and monitor for video
- Case study statements-one per participant of those selected
- One of the following for each participant
 - International Association of Fairs and Expositions National Code of Ethics
 - Minnesota State Fair 4-H Premium Books
 - Specie Information Sheets
 - County Premium Lists and Rules

Biosecurity

- Biosecurity Lesson Power Point, (download) computer and projector
- Blackboard or easel with paper
- Management Practice Cards-one set for each group of 4 participants
- Copies of Power Point Worksheet-one per participant (optional)
- Copies of Biosecurity case studies-one for each group of 4 participants
- Copies of Biosecurity plan worksheets--one per participant
- Dry erase boards and markers

Environmental Stewardship

- News articles that attest to how livestock production impacts on our environment.
- Two or more samples of animal manure, corn silage, wool or bedding animals have been on or common household products: vinegar, onion, orange or ammonia
- FeBreeze or other air freshening product
- Copies of local zoning regulations/ordinances related to livestock – one per participant or one per small group.
- Oil Spill Demonstration (optional)
- 3 baby food jars with lids or other clear containers light oil (baby oil or a light cooking oil), motor oil and water
- small cake pan
- wool felt fabric cut in 4”X4” pieces

- eye dropper

Speaking Up for Animal Agriculture

- Power Point- Speaking Up for Animal Agriculture (download), computer and projector
- Flip chart or white board and markers
- Pictures of Exhibitors at fair--one set of 10 pictures for each group of youth.
- Power Point Worksheet- one per each participant (optional)
- Speaking Up for Animal Agriculture Handout-one for each participant